PROJECT ASSESSMENT

GemPad has conducted a thorough and meticulous evaluation of the project "Gamety". Our process involved an initial data review of information available on their website and socials, followed by internal discussions with the project team and later fact-checking all the information gathered. The evaluation covered 13 crucial categories to ensure quality, authenticity, and compliance.

After this thorough review, we're delighted to confirm that Gamety received a MEDIUM RISK evaluation base on GemPad's strict criteria.

Medium Risk

68 / 100

This public document was finalized on the 29th of November 2024, we would like to congratulate the Gamety team on their completion of the vetting process. We look forward to seeing how the project progresses.

DISCLAIMER

The score provided in this vetting report is based on GemPad team's individual research, evaluation, and judgment of the factors we consider important in assessing the project's potential. It reflects our own interpretation of the available information at the time of vetting.

The purpose of this report is to create a public document of facts available online, from the Gamety team with counter-checks and verifications.

Subjectivity: The Vetting report is inherently subjective and may vary if another analyst or team were to conduct a similar review. Different analysts may weigh certain factors more heavily or interpret data differently, leading to different conclusions.

Non-Financial Advice: This report should not be taken as financial advice or a recommendation to invest in any shape or form. It is not intended to influence your financial decisions. Investing in cryptocurrencies and related projects carries risks, and you should conduct your own research or due diligence before making any investment decisions.

No Guarantee: The vetting report does not guarantee future performance. Market conditions, project developments, internal problems, and other unforeseen factors can significantly impact the outcome, regardless of the score given.

Use of the Report: The purpose of the score is to provide a general insight based on the analysis conducted. It is meant to be one of many tools you might consider in your overall decision-making process.

Understanding these limitations will help you use the information effectively within your own research and investment strategy.
